2019 Training Day

On November 12, 2019, Univar Solutions will be conducting an Educational Training Day in Vaughan, Ontario.

Univar continues to give back to the industry through our exciting annual day of Guest Speakers, a Manufacturer Trade Show, Training and new products to the Canadian Market.

- The legendary Doc Frishman is returning to discuss the industry and tools used. The exciting Dini Miller will also be speaking and sharing new research on roaches and bedbugs.
- More than 30 suppliers will be there showing their products and answering all your questions.
- Don't forget to check out the sample bags and giveaways!

DATE: November 12th from 9:00am to 4:30pm (join us for refreshments and food at our networking session from 4:30pm until 6:00pm, sponsored by JT Eaton)
